

These parts of the snowman's face are to put on the snowman's head on page 60.
There are three sets.

Suggestion: Keep the two eyes together as one visual. If you laminate the visuals before using them you can do this activity over and over during the month! Another suggestion is to let each student put their own snowman together, help them label the parts in Spanish, and take it home!

